SWAPPED BENCHES.

Judge Ingram in Nottoway; Judge Watson in Richmond.

Judge Walter A. Watson, of Nottoway county, sat in the Law and Equity Court yesterday and heard an interesting case. Judge Ingram, of the Law and Equity Court, was up in Nottoway county sitting in a case in which Judge Watson had something of a personal interest. This was the occasion of the two judges swapping benches for a day.

The case in the Law and Equity Court which occupied Judge Watson's attention yesterday was that of E. E. Williams against W. H. Turner, proprietor of the Virginia Laundry Works. The plaintiff in this case is that on November 12, 1904, Williams was run into at the corner of Broad and Second Streets by a car of the laundry company and seriously hurt. The plaintiff claims that he was injured to the extent of $2,000, and he sues for that amount. The plaintiff was represented by O'Flaherty and Fuller, and the defendant by George E. Wise and J. M. Russell. Argument in the case took up the entire day. The verdict of the jury will probably be rendered this morning.

Case Goes Over.

The case of William Horah vs. the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad Company, which was on trial in the United States District Court yesterday, went over to this morning, on the evidence not having been taken. Horah, a negro, and a non-resident of the state of Virginia, is suing the company for $30,000 alleged damages.

Meeting for Divine Healing.

FITS MANY.

To Leave Off Coffee and Use Postum.

Postum Coffee shows its great nourishing power in many ways. It was nursing my baby six months ago," writes a young mother. "and found that tea and coffee did not agree with me. I grew nervous and weak, my appetite was not good, and besides, baby was cross and fretful. He didn't seem to get proper nourishment from my milk, and friends said: 'You must wean him, he is starving.' I gave up tea and coffee and tried cocoa, chocolate and milk instead, but still baby didn't seem to thrive. At last, on the advice of a friend, I began to use Postum Coffee, and I can truly say that the effect was wonderful! Both baby and I began to improve in appetite, spirits and flesh immediately. In three months my boy weighed 20 pounds and he is as good a baby as a mother could wish to have. My drinking Postum did it. I cannot recommend Postum Food Coffee too highly to nursing mothers. It is better in flavor than the other coffee, and is far superior in nutritive qualities, supplying just what the child must have, as no other food can do." IN THE AIR.

No One Can Tell When Judge Witt Will Decide Demurrer.

There was no jury session of the Hustings Court yesterday. The jury has been dismissed until next Monday morning, and the expectation is that Judge Witt will take from now until Monday, to consider the demurrer in the election cases. It was stated yesterday that counsel for the alleged election law violators and Mr. Richardson for the Commonwealth would submit to Judge Witt written argument in addition to the oral arguments of yesterday. This may delay a decision somewhat, and no one can now guess when Judge Witt's decision will be handed down.

THE TIMES DISPATCH: RICHMOND, VA. THURSDAY, OCTOBER 12, 1905.

Messrs. J. W. Ferguson & Sons Sign Up With the Strikers.

ARE PROMPTLY EXPELLED

Local Typothetae Declare the Outlook for Success Was Never Brighter.

The first break in the printers' strike came yesterday, when Messrs. J. W. Ferguson & Sons, employing printers, signed the agreement with the union printers, granting the eight-hour day after January 1st.

Mr. Everett Wadley, speaking for the local Typothetae, said last night that they were not at all discouraged at the move made by the Ferguson firm.

"They are small employers," he said, "and the loss to our ranks is not considerable. At a meeting held this afternoon we expelled the firm from membership in the Typothetae."

"We are in better shape than at any time during the strike, and have every reason to expect victory in the end."

The Printers' Side.

Mr. M. R. Pace, president of the printers' union, issued the following statement last night concerning the matter:

To Our Friends: The Public: We, the printers of this city, have announced that the staunch and honorable printing house of John W. Ferguson and Sons have been expelled from the Typothetae of Richmond, Va., for failing to sign an agreement with our organization that they will work their plant hours on and off during the strike.

We believe that this course on the part of the oldest and best known printing establishment in our city will convince the citizens that the Typothetae Union No. 90 has made no hard or unreasonable request of the employing printers. Messrs. Ferguson and Sons, in their agreement with the Typothetae, have agreed to sign said agreement. And we believe that the public will look upon the subject in the same manner as this firm has done with respect to the same. They doubtless realize the fact that they could not afford, as true Virginia gentlemen, to let their old men (also Virginia gentlemen) leave their homes for other parts, while they filled their office with the scoundrels of the country—men devoid of principle, having no abiding place, coming hither for the purpose of making a few dollars to be squandered in drink and riotous living, and when their passions have been inflamed, to the disgust even of their employers, then to return to the haunts whence they came.

Time to Make Statement.

It has not been our purpose to parade our affairs before the public or to annoy the press with our grievances from the strike, but now the time has come when our silence should be broken.

Some of the employing printers have been very vigilant in stating our case for us. Let any business man take up his pen and state to the public the wrongs of the printers. We do not ask him to take our word, but to simply examine the facts of the case. After the question of eight hours has been discussed by the two bodies, the printers have been fixed upon by our organization as the time when the printers will make their statement to the public. The printers have been fixed upon by our organization as the time when the printers will make their statement to the public. The printers have been fixed upon by our organization as the time when the printers will make their statement to the public.

Not Cause Bankruptcy.

In the most plain fact, they did not get the eight-hour work day without bankrupting their business. Let us take this and ask any business man to analyze the scale of prices. The Typothetae Union No. 90, calls for $15 per week for hand work and for machine operators $18 per week. This is the price for the printers. This is the price for the printers. This is the price for the printers.

JUDGE F. W. SIMS CALLS THE TURN.

Writes a Strong Card in Answer to the Republicans.

IS CLEARLY WITHIN THE LAW

State Senators Not Required to Report to Secretary of Commonwealth.

Judge F. W. Sims, Democratic nominee for State Senator from the Thirteenth District, and Mr. G. R. Swift, House member from Fredericksburg and Spotsylvania, have been attacked by Republicans in their district, upon the alleged ground that they have not properly filed their notices and statements as to nominations, required by law.

Judge Sims has prepared the following comprehensive statement in reply:

"The statute (section 1454, Code of Virginia, 1904) covers both primary and general elections, and requires two statements of expenses to be filed, one of primary election expenses, the other of regular election expenses, and the provision of this statute is that such statements shall be filed by the officer or board empowered by law to issue certificates of election to such office or place (meaning the officer voted for in a regular election, and the place as party nominee voted for in a primary election, as the case may be). Now it is true that the statement of expenses incurred in the regular election, which Mr. Swift and I will file within thirty days after November 7th next, must be filed with the Secretary of the Commonwealth, because he is the officer empowered by law to issue certificates of our election to such regular election, and the statement of expenses incurred in the primary election, which Mr. Swift and I will file within thirty days after November 7th next, must be filed with the Secretary of the Commonwealth, because he is the officer empowered by law to issue certificates of our election to such primary election, and the statement of expenses incurred in the primary election, which Mr. Swift and I will file within thirty days after November 7th next, must be filed with the Secretary of the Commonwealth, because he is the officer empowered by law to issue certificates of our election to such primary election, and the statement of expenses incurred in the primary election, which Mr. Swift and I will file within thirty days after November 7th next, must be filed with the Secretary of the Commonwealth, because he is the officer empowered by law to issue certificates of our election to such primary election, and the statement of expenses incurred in the primary election, which Mr. Swift and I will file within thirty days after November 7th next, must be filed with the Secretary of the Commonwealth, because he is the officer empowered by law to issue certificates of our election to such primary election, and the statement of expenses incurred in the primary election, which Mr. Swift and I will file within thirty days after November 7th next, must be filed with the Secretary of the Commonwealth, because he is the officer empowered by law to issue certificates of our election to such primary election, and the statement of expenses incurred in the primary election, which Mr. Swift and I will file within thirty days after November 7th next, must be filed with the Secretary of the Commonwealth, because he is the officer empowered by law to issue certificates of our election to such primary election, and the statement of expenses incurred in the primary
